

POLICE DEPARTMENT MONTHLY REPORT

February 9, 2016

Not a lot to report on for January. We don't have any new projects starting and nothing completed in January to update council on. Rob continues to be in the schools teaching classes. With reduced call loads officers are getting more random patrol time and working on case follow-up. The department has also developed the 2016 in-service training calendar, which consists of classes instructed by our employees. Work is continuing on policy update utilizing Lexipol and research into nuisance ordinances.

Neighborhood Services worked with Public Works locating vehicle owners and moving vehicles so that the streets could be plowed to the curb.
