

Three candidates successfully completed the initial testing for police officer done on May 16th. A conditional offer has been made to the top finisher to fill the 15th position approved in the 2016 budget. A conditional offer is pending on one of the two remaining candidates to fill a vacancy pending with the resignation of Caleb effective June 27, 2016. Caleb has accepted a position with a front range police department. The remaining candidate will be placed on an eligibility list in case one of the other two is unable to complete final testing. Final testing consists of a background check, psychological testing, physical testing and an administrative review.

Kelsey has completed training in the NSO office and assumed her primary role as the evidence/property custodian. Doug will take on nuisance issues with Theresa remaining the main contact for animals and Jennie doing parking. Doug, Theresa and Kelsey will all handle calls on each other's days off and modify schedules to accommodate enforcement needs.

WSCU and public school end of year activities went off without any significant issues. Memorial weekend was busy with activities and lots of people but uneventful in town. Like everyone else in town we are now moving into summer activities.
