Hi Cassie,

Thanks for being the point person for receiving comments on the speed reduction consideration, I'm sure in this climate you'll receive extreme viewpoints despite it literally being about a 5 mph decrease.

I just want to add to the commentary in favor of this proposal. I ride my bike in town as much as possible. I witness blown stop signs regularly, so having just a 5 mph decrease I think could bring more awareness and change to the safety issues on residential streets.

Thank you!
